INTERMEDIATE 4 - H

The Appomattox Intermediate 4-H Club met Feb. 17, 1972. The meeting was brought to order by Hal Smith. Pledges to the flags were led by Frances Chernault and Judy Watson. We discussed the Public Speaking contest and Share-the-Fun. A date has not been decided for the Share-the-Fun yet. The Jaycees are having a "Dribble and Shoot Contest" for all boys, on Feb. 26, 9 o'clock, a.m. at the Appomattox High School gym. As a program we had group discussions on such subjects as teenage rights, responsibilities, and drugs. The meeting was then adjourned.

ACHS 4-H MEETING

A joint meeting of all the ACHS 4-H clubs was held on March 2, 1972 in the school auditorium.

The meeting was called to order by the sophomore president Fontaine Johnson. LaKern Aikern Allen and Kathy Whitaker were in charge of refreshments. Fontaine then led us in the club pledges. At this time the meeting was turned over to Mr. T. E. Pittman, Appomattox, resident engineer, for the Virginia Department of Highways. Mr. Pittman introduced Mr. Bob Pierce, district traffic engineer for the Virginia Department of Highways. Mr. Pierce presented a talk with slides on the international road sign change. This presentation proved to be very interesting and educational for the club members.

With no further business to be brought before the club, the meeting was adjourned.

Raiders Fight To Win Advance To Semi-Finals

The Appomattox Raiders drown two points at the start of the fourth quarter, fought back to take Fieldale-Collinsville by 67-65 in the opening game of the Region III, AA ball tournament being held at Lynchburg College last night. The win moved the Raiders into the semi-finals of Lucy Addison Friday night as Addison drew a first round bye.

The Cavaliers hit their first field goal from the floor, all the basket on lay-ups, and looked like a loser right from the starters. Leon Robinson, reserve strong on the offensive boards, scored six points and the first shot and took a 15-0 lead as the first quarter ended. Garrett hit a free throw and a 2-point field goal in the first quarter to cut the lead to 15-3 before Fieldale ripped six straight points for a 21-14 lead and a Raiders failed to threaten the rest of the quarter.

Fieldale's defense held the Cavaliers almost four minutes before they could score, but they got six points in the quarter as Appomattox carried a 27-21 lead in at the half. Garrett came from behind to hit a 40-42 lead going into the third quarter. Fieldale outscored Appomattox 3-2 in the quarter to take a 43-39 lead into the fourth quarter as the Raiders fell behind.

In the final quarter, the Raiders came on strong as Bobby Layne with 3:58 left in the quarter to tie the score at 53-53, Leon Robinson hit on a layup, and made it a three point play with 3:18 to go as the Raiders led 56-53. Hylton scored for the Cavaliers to tie at 56-55 and then Sammy Drake came through with two free throws as the reeled off five straight points, he hit a jumper with 2:28 to go, Hylton scored six straight points to tie at 61-61 with a little over a minute to play. Ricky Garrett then hit from the top of the circle to make it 63-61 for Appomattox and a steal by Johnson made it a four point lead 65-61 with 32 seconds to play. Two free throws by Hylton cut it to 65-63 with 20 second to go and Garrett took a pass under the basket for the two points as Appomattox let the last two points go, to avoid a foul as the clock ran out.

Garrett led the Raiders with 20 points, nine in the last quarter, three assists and 10 rebounds. He was followed by Bobby Layne with 12, Leon Robinson with 10, Ken Gafford and Sammy Waddell with nine each and David Johnson with seven. Robinson had 14 rebounds and Layne eight.

Game scoring honors went to Leon Hylton with 33 points, 21 in the second half. He was followed by Steve Joyce with 16 and Ken Joyce with 13.

The Raiders held an edge in rebounding, 31-29 and committed only 10 turnovers, three in the second half, to 17 mistakes for the Cavaliers. The Cavaliers shot over 50% from the floor to about 45% for the Raiders, but hustle and desire made the difference.

Chatham Edges Raiders 64-56 In Finals

The Chatham Cavaliers broke a 54-54 tie with about four minutes left in the game and went on to beat the Appomattox Raiders 64-56 in the finals of the Group AA, Region III basketball tournament held at Lynchburg College last Saturday night. The win made Chatham 20-3 as they go to the State tournament and Appomattox finished with a 16-6 record for the season as they got the runner-up trophy for the tournament.

The game was tied five times in the first quarter with the Raiders out in front 18-17 as the buzzer sounded. The Raiders had a 11-7 lead for the biggest spread in that quarter. It was tied three times in the second quarter, the last at 31-31 before Chatham scored at the buzzer for a 33-31 half time lead. Sammy Waddell kept the Raiders in the game in the third quarter as he hit for six points and they tied it at 46-46 going into the last quarter. Chatham built a eight point lead, 43-35, in that quarter but David Johnson hit with less than a minute in the quarter to tie it a 44-44 before each team scored again. In the fourth quarter, the score was tied at 54-54 with about four minutes left in the game and the Raiders went cold and could not try a basket as Chatham ran to a 64-54 lead in that span. The last two Raider points came at the game ending buzzer as Leon Robinson tapped in a missed shot. Chatham hit six free throws in the last of the game as the Raiders fouled to get the ball.

Ricky Garrett, a senior playing his last game for the Raiders, led them with 15 points and four assist to go along with eight rebounds. He was followed by Leon Robinson and Sammy Waddell with 12 points each. Robinson had 10 rebounds and hit six of nine from the floor and Waddell hit six of 10 attempts.

Thomas Motley led a scorers with 27 points as most of them came close under the basket. He had 16 in the first half. He was followed by John Wilson with 24 as he hit 10 of 15 shot from the floor, mostly outside jumpers.

Charm And Spirit

These perky cheerleaders deserve a lot of credit for leading the fans during the regular basketball season, district finals and on to the semi-finals of regional competition Saturday night. And what better spot to try out a tricky formation than right up there on the ACHS flagpole! We feel we speak for players and fans when we say "Thanks a lot" for a job well done!
